The Kinsey Sicks welcome you to our home...

The New Conservatory Theater Center, in association with The Kinsey Sicks, presents:

The Balled Sopranos:

At Home with The Kinsey Sicks

May 22, 23, 29, 30; June 3-6, 10-13, 17-20, 24-26
NCTC, 25 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco

The Kinsey Sicks are delighted to welcome you into the bosom of their humble home.

Refreshments (and copies of our cd, Dragapella!) will be sold in our lovely foyer during the interval (that means intermission). If you use the toilet, please leave a quarter on the seat.

Your hostesses for this evening ...

Favorite historical period: "The Greek Empire—they had 1,001 clever uses for olive oil!" Special accomplishments: "Arranging flowers, marriages, and the music for The Kinsey Sicks—all in one day!" Favorite household appliance: "The remote control—so I can run the Mixmaster and the Hoover simultaneously!"

Winnie

Favorite historical period: "William Bradford, III." Proudest accomplishment with the Kinsey Sicks: "Teaching my fellow D.A.R. members to find their G-spots (they're still looking)." Favorite thing to do around the house: "Gathering new specimens to expand my lint collection."

Vaselina

Trixie

Favorite historical period: "The French Revolution—until, of course, Monsieur Guillotine invented that drastic weight loss program." Best thing about being in The Kinsey Sicks: "Bringing great joy into the dull, humdrum lives of our fans (especially the rich, handsome ones)." Proudest moment: "Being the first and only platinum blonde (size 36DD) to be inducted into the Legion d'Honneur (vive la France!)"

Favorite historical period: "The Stone Age—potential dates weren't hung up about things like body odor and crabs." Proudest Kinsey Sicks Accomplishment: "Writing most of the songs you'll hear (except the really good ones)." Favorite thing to do around the house: "Hide the soap."
