A Young Friend of Georgee Harcus (cymbalist extraordinaire) is looking for an entry-level job in a restaurant, like bussing tables or salads/side work in a kitchen. If you have any leads on such a job, please call Georgee at home (621-8916) or at work (983-9616).

A Special Offer from Dreamland comes to us by way of Thom Kumorek. Dreamland is now offering 2-for-1 membership discounts (2 memberships, 1 year for $60). They are also holding several special events each week, including a flea market on Saturdays. For more information, call or stop by Dreamland, 715 Harrison. 495-8660.

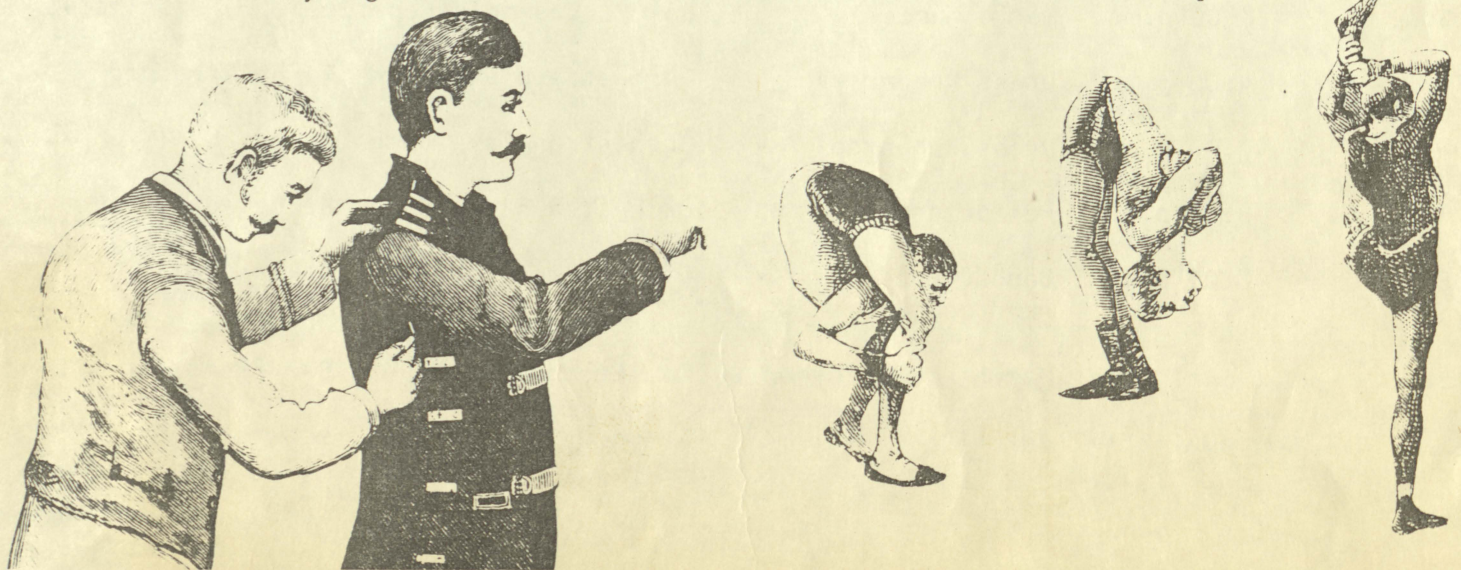

The Ted Tribune This time around, Dennis Erickson (tuba) will be taking care of the paperwork/coordination/book-keeping that's involved in getting us all to Cazadero to prepare for the May concert, but Ted Neff (correspondent sublime) will continue to prepare us all for the ambience which is what Band Camp is really all about. For those of you who have never been to Cazadero with the Band, welcome to the madness. Herewith, the first chapter:

Have you noticed something queer in the behavior of a trio of our beloved band personnel? The affect is similar to a host encountered by Alice in Lewis Carroll's epic satire. If you can answer the following questions, they may provide one clue toward the solution of this conundrum:

1. Why has Georgee Harcus been frequenting every second hand clothing store and costume shop on a weekly basis?
2. Why has Ralph Odom (what would Band Notes be without his name in print?) been seen carrying bolts of felt, yards of ribbon, feathers of every variety, and a steamer trunk filled with sequins and jewels? Why has the stock of gaudier items at Lew Serbin & Co. been depleted?
3. Ken Ward will soon visit Washington, D.C. ostensibly to visit his parents. Also on his itinerary is a visit to the historical section of the Smithsonian which features Inaugural Ball gowns and an Eastern shuttle to New York to meet with Nancy Reagan's favorite modistes. Why?
4. What song did Irving Berlin write about a holiday?
5. Who wrote THIS drivel?

A response will appear in next week's Band Notes. It will either answer or further obfuscate the questions.

Roommate Wanted Doug Shader (Men's Chorus) is looking for a roommate to share his apartment on Castro at Beaver. Rent is $197.50 which includes heat & water. A charming deco building in a safe neighborhood close to everything. Available March 1. Home: 431-6495; work: 983-1674. Nonsmoker preferred.

Jon gets fitted for a new jacket for the Chinese Parade while the Twirlers warm up for their street routines.

Phone Steve Frasheur at home (563-1087) or work (621-5400) if you have news or personal items to put in the next Band Notes.
