

It all began, such a long time ago. Before I could even remember to remember. And in a flash it was over and I'm here right now traveling to the future, living the now. The past is over and gone. Thank God!
The Now is continuous movement traveling through the great time machine called the instant of Now. It works like this.

Here it comes, there it is, oppo- too late it's gone, at least if you're not quick enough.

Life is a continuous learning experience. Every thing we experience affects a future perception of the coming Now that hasn't even quite yet.

The Past is ~~gone~~ not more than Now out of reach. All we can see of it is its reflection with ever growing ripples distorting our image until its image is unrecognizable.

Love - that elusive rare thing
that keeps me alive.

How can it be but its so
I know.

Love is all I want - Its all I need,
day after day - in my own way.

Women to love is all I can say
Warm my heart, keeping me
going my way

A Lesbian is what I am

Why did it take so long?

My heart flutters with the thought.

Oh where oh where is my love
tonight?

Sept 6, 87

One dark night I saw the light, streaming thru the smoke filled
room.

Voices, laughter, voices sang
the harmony of life.

When can I come
when can I see
when can I be just me.

in the light?

It was dark when I stood
but I saw where I was,
~~and~~ I feared not where I am but where I am going
tonight.

As a long way away and lonely
in the cold but I have to ~~the cold~~
go tonight - I just can't wait any more - goodbye

Good bye to the old life

Good bye to the cold -

I am going to the light
when love is warm and

I can be me

Thank you for the light
Dear ~~love~~ love. good night.

Love is for the warm hearted
Love is for the strong.
Love is for everyone
who can ~~say~~ sing his song.
Sunshine sings his praises
all over the land, sharing
His warm love to everyone.

Women loving Women
Men loving Men
Just people loving people
Just loving, caring, nurturing
healing - just people
Men loving Women
Women loving men
Just people loving people
Just loving, caring, nurturing
healing - just people.
Loving - just loving

Understanding.....
What?
Whats to understand?
Everything just is -
and thats that.
Thats all there is....
Dont let your feelings hurt
Everything is just is - forget understanding and love.
Love -

What am I doing here? Here with my kind of people. People who love people any which way.
It's all ok. — every day any which way.

So - What happened? Where did we go? How far apart are we?
Forever? Nothing is anymore.
Anything can happen - It does does.

If anything is certain its change.

Daily. With glory.

But I still love you - even more.

Your strength is beautiful.

Seeing you was wonderful even though I pained.

If somehow we could go away together to live anew - you and I and the kitchen - two women in love - loving all the way.

Lesbian love is all warm
and glowing showings me
the way & way to fulfill my inner soul needs.

In every way my lovers keep me ~~me~~ in a new warmth I had never known. There delight is all I feel - with my lesbian delight.

The loss of all that I knew was Pain I didn't know to exist.

But now I'm here, alone, ^{grown} ~~grown~~ up to womanhood, a lesbian.
Living moments of delight - living moments of pain. Keeping in touch moment by moment with my reality.

Nothing is the same anymore and that's ok. Everything is changing just like it always
