

a basket is a prayer

acceptance

it starts in the belly button and spirals around

we pray for acceptance

to remember our ways
and our power.

protect yourself and your traditions weaving beauty, traditions, memory

we are
two-spirit

people
weaving
our lives

two-spirit people hold a significant status in our traditions

we have for centuries held a place of honor among our people we are brave people who walk in a world that resists our power

powerful
it starts in the belly button and spirals around

healing
it starts in the belly button and spirals around

we struggle to remain
connected to our pasts

outsiders have stolen our values, our beliefs

we remember our place
among our people

we use that knowledge
to heal each other
